

Alec F

2/2/06

My question to Representative Kelly was "Do you support all the testing required by the No Child Left Behind Act and if so, do you believe that the Federal Government should provide additional funding?"

Representative Kelly responded by talking about the extensive testing that is required by the No Child Left Behind Act. She explained that it is necessary to track our academic progress and be sure school districts are doing all they can to further our academic knowledge.